

I stongly believe that we should keep the no call listing because I consider this as our legal right as a citizen of the United State to refuse unwated calls. This is similar to choosing not to be listed in the phone book. Are they going to take away our rights as to not having an ulisted phone number with the phone company too?